1. This is to advise that the Central Intelligence Group will issue travel orders to military personnel assigned to the Agency and will make payment directly from CIA funds in accordance with the above cited instructions. This arrangement will permit more expeditious handling of military travel and avoid considerable work insofar as accounting procedures and requirements are concerned.

2. This procedure will be consistent with arrangements which have been made with the Navy Department relative to the travel of naval personnel assigned to the Central Intelligence Group.

3. We will appreciate being advised if there are any details to be worked out in order to satisfactorily proceed with this arrangement.
